

CITY of CALABASAS

January 30, 2012

Dear Calabasas Resident, Employee, and Business Owner,

Please join the City of Calabasas, Calabasas Environmental Commission, California Wildlife Center, National Park Service and Project Coyote on Monday February 27, 2012 at 7:00pm for the City of Calabasas Coyote Education Night.

It is a fact of life in Calabasas that we co-exist with coyotes. Recognizing that co-existence is best managed through education, the City of Calabasas Environmental Commission has invited experts in and near our community to share their knowledge about living with coyotes. Those who attend this program are encouraged to pass this knowledge on to the businesses, HOAs, and other organizations that they may participate in.

During the evening program, we will discuss:

- Coyote ecology,
- Recommendations for how to behave near coyotes,
- The Do's and Don'ts when living near coyotes,
- Steps that homeowners can take to protect their property,
- Actions that can change animal behavior, particularly hazing,
- Information on the City of Calabasas Coyote Management Plan.
